

Hey Little Mona Lisa

Writers: Brett Jones, & Jimi T. Hall

She said she didn't go to parties
And she never heard this song
Her lips left me like a sunset
But her eyes didn't go along

Chorus:

I said hey little Mona Lisa
Why don't you laugh
Why don't you smile
I said hey little Mona Lisa
We could dance for a little while

I asked her a lot of questions
I got back a few painted words
I woulda sworn she knew the answers
Questions of the universe

Repeat Chorus

She finally gave in to reason
And we waltzed out on that floor
But when I turned around to hold her
She wasn't with me anymore

Repeat Chorus
